

The focus of Integrative Medicine is to nurture and direct the person's vitality rather than to attack a particular disease. Diseases are only names for patterns of symptoms, often imprisoning the patient to that name. This excludes the patient's true individuality and unique way the illness manifests. Health can then be defined as the unimpeded expression of our innate natural and vital force. At FortifyHealth, we help you get there.

At FortifyHealth we use preventive medicine by using complementary and alternative approaches, working as a team (with you) to identify the best natural treatments

versus treating you with the 'medicine of the averages'. We communicate with you about your health in a different way, carefully listening for keys that unlock true healing. The most important success can be achieved when we cease to classify any individual into a disease or category and instead to see them for their unique and in dividual situation, whether it be a simple heartburn or advanced cancer. We help you by selecting the most crucial and diagnostic laboratory tests and self-tests, acting as your "personal vitality coach" to truly identify the cause and take the necessary steps leading to fortification of health and freedom from disease.

"Disease is a name that is given to a condition that has multiple causes. Fortify the body, the terrain, and the disease disintegrates." ☐☐☐ ~ Dr. Dan

Let us be of service

Life is a delicate balance between the inner terrain and outer world. Let us help you to find the balance point, which emanates the light of vibrant health to all of your cells.

"Some call it Bio-Regulation, some call it returning to Pure-Cause, and others feel it to be a release toward having an unimpeded connection with God." ☐☐☐ ~ Dr. Dan
